

1st Street
day evening - 10 Aug. 57

as you recommend together with 3 pencil sketches, 2 of which are those I bargained for & for which I will let you have the money by P.O. order before I leave London (Thursday at the latest) unless I see you in the meanwhile) - the other is a pencil portrait, of whom I know not, nor whether it was inserted intentionally or not.

There is little chance of Elziva being forthcoming.

Yours very truly

Robert Boyle
