REGENT'S PARK, N.W.

2 March /6.

Dear Mr. Colles,

I return Mr.

Unwin's 2 letters. I suppose what he w^d have liked is something like this -

Editing - in the sense that I w^d introduce something more in the nature of continuous narrative -

Revision - To abridge or cut out some things -

Additions - To add to that book, going up to 1876, some material (wh. I already have by me compiled) proper to later dates.

I don't want to do "editing" of that kind: because (as I have often had occasion to say) I published long ago.
