

Calais Cottage

Crumphall Mansions

30 Nov. 81

Dearest Lucy -

Will you oblige me by getting the enclosed cheque cashed at the the bank & sending me the money by p. o. order or otherwise. I am in want of it.

I heard from Watts two days ago that he had written to Robinson to ask him if he or Russell were to go over the House. This was precisely what I had told him not to do, but as it seemed to be an answer to something R had written to him I dont exactly know how far Watts has transgressed — However nothing yet has been done. When they the surveyors go over the house as it seems they must together, you might be a valuable witness of how the house was, when we first went in to it — I think you had perhaps better not get call at the Schurys only perhaps you might

What writ has a line saying I mislaid you evidence when the surveyors look for the place: as better shill do a say nothing till you hear from me.

Can you tell me the name of the books Office wants for Christmas? Some working at the Colthes for the J.A. — I nearly saw with with the pen so must say so at night with Reminds the chicks. For more business of Macks B

[Faint, illegible handwriting, likely bleed-through from the reverse side of the page.]

MS
23L: 3:3