

Howard Stouse,

Stoke Newington Green, London, N.

9.7.83

Dear Mrs. Rossetti,

By rail I am sending you your large paper copy - only received this day - and the only large paper copy I have been enabled to give to anyone.

Your father has had his from the publisher.

Sincerely trusting
the

the "bad headache" has departed without leaving "a sack behind," and with kind remembrances to the relatives around you, I am, believe me, most faithfully yours,

John H. Ingram

Mr. Rossetti,
r.

P.S. Should you require the "few extra copies" you name I might be able to let you have up to 3 or 4 at the subscription price for small paper of 7/ per copy. 21/2

Biographer of Edgar Poe, Mrs Browning, &c. - This letter relates to his memoir of Oliver Madox Brown

