

Sept. 8.

My very dear friend,
Excellent journey,
without any delay; found all at home looking so nice, cheerful & comfortable A & E. delighted to hear of my varied "Experiences".
Among them I cannot tell you how sweet an impression on my heart your tender friendship

K U
MS L. 2. 1
MSS.
Rossetti Family
2

has left, so shown too as it was in those
"offices of love"; to judge an old Prayer book translation of Psalm 133. on w. My health now makes me so greatly depend. Not that my heart, however well & strong I was, could ever be indifferent to them. They not only as Pusey says of God works, from love, but tend to its increase.

they are its "helpers & friends." I found more than one "surprise" awaiting me, & expect to enjoy a daily cup of comfort from the Solitaire, w. "I have said."
As we say in the North yesterday. Mary's idea in the needle was this w., it seems is the accustomed Etiquette "if the Suppers

Shd cut love, it is there to sew it up again". She was very busy yesterday afternoon with her dear work tell F. I has found out may to her unknown animals. especially the Gnu.

Much love my dear kind beloved friend. A & E. from me in all that is kind both to you & husband. A. has been but very poorly. Ever y. attached friend Mrs Greenwell