Dear Mrs Corrie

Thanks for your note.
As you do not think
it likely you & brother will buy some of something pictures, I have referred to a request just <sup>received</sup> received to send ~~some~~ <sup>not</sup> of them to a friend in Manchester who
is likely to be able to dispose of some. Thus it might perhaps be
better to wait some days if Constantine*
thinks it worth while coming with you to look up them, as some of those sent and then

probably be returned,
and I have a few
besides likely to be coming from the artists' <sup>3</sup> studio.

I have now ordered
a frame for the
head of Mme Lambuco, & it shall not be
long in reaching its owner. I am only
sorry that circum-
-stances interfered
with its getting carried further, but I do
not think ill of it.

Yours sincerely
