

is, hoped only temporary
prostration of health, ~~and~~ - the result of
over-strain in work & hurrap; & I have
by me several of his pictures in oil & water (small in size & varying in price from 75 £ to 25 £)
which I am endeavouring to sell for him under the present painful circumstances. They are really fine in all
mental qualities &
in tone & colour.

Burne Jones mentioned
your brother Constantine
as a possible purchaser.
I asked him to speak about it, but do not know whether he has

yet been able to do so.
Could you and Constantine look round & see the pictures here one afternoon about 4. ~~30~~? It wd
be a good deed to buy
one of them just now (Constantine is one of the finest as well as
most gifted natures,
and it wd be a specimen worth having.

I have here a drawing
belonging to Constantine which I have long
meant to send him.
It is a head of Adam Lambert, which I never had the opportunity of carrying further, but which is complete in a certain sense.

I do not think I have heard from you since
