Dear Mrs Coronic

Many thanks for your kind note. I need not trouble you further, as I have borrowed a similar frame from Queen Square - I feel horribly guilty towards you and all my friends, because my hope that I shall soon be able shut myself up to some purpose in the long run. I'm finishing several other long-standing Dauls now as well as the big one, and am in such a muddle with it
