Dear Mrs Coroni

I asked you lately
whether you had or knew of any Indian muslin of a peculiar yellowish tint & you said no. I have since had to adopt a ~~light~~ whiter kind for the purpose, & this is not of course I believe, but I cannot meet with any just now at the shops. Do you know of any to be had by any chance? It is for a dress which I may mention

[dress]

is making up for one of the pictures I am doing from her -

With kindest remembrance (and hoping to see you soon)

I am yours ever truly
