Dear Mrs Corwin

It strikes me to brush
 you with enclosed note from Constantine, I do not know whether my best plan would not be ~~to~~ ^{for me to} get Ford & Dickinson the same
 makers to fetch the Day - I have picture of Luke it to his house on every day
you might name as most suitable. It would need fixing

properly in the frame
which they only could
do. I suppose
"Holland" to be a servant & not a frame-maker.

Pardon my trusting
you. I have worked on the given drawing
greatly to its advantage, and the new
frame is now making.

With kind remembrance
Ever yours D. G. Ripatti
