My Dear Watts

I rather expected to hear from you with the proposed "Index"
 to my letter to Miss Murray. I am more & more vexed with myself the more I think of that matter.
 But you had so often said that you wished
 a little conversation
 at some moment with the Journals on the point in question that I was induced - as I now see you write too hastily - to use your name in writing. The real objections existing
