

23
Wednesday

My dear Watts

We have now fully arranged to leave here tomorrow (Thursday by the 4-57 train)
coming into Victoria at 7-150. Some sort of ^{railway} carriage with 4 places has been engaged - I suppose
a coupe - a thing
I hate; so in that machine we may
probably be found,
but I am not certain of this. I shall be glad to recognize yourself &

Dinner at the Station
I had quite made up my mind that Ellis did not mean business, so it was no disappointment
so far. What it means that my best work has sud-denly become so value-
-less, it is difficult to understand. I am extremely vexed
about the accident
as the small picture & must write to Rae
when I see what it is. This is the whole recompense derived

23
from the 2 transactions.

I hope to sit opposite you for some sort of a chat tomorrow evening. They indeed there is not much of a cheering kind. Meanwhile
and ever

I am affectionately

J. D.

By the bye, I dare say there will be something available in the upper line.
