My dear Watts

I am very sorry not to see you in London
being, but see clearly that you must nurse
yourself.

Your letter contained
no Sonnet. I wish you would send me
a Sonnet - he deserves it in several ways & it is of the most important to him.

I continue to hear from The Liverpool people who want a photo.
They will hardly push
me to this expense
if not serious about
it.

Ellis has sent me
a specimen page
to my satisfaction.
No proof as yet.
I want badly to do Joan of Arc
for the book, but it is almost too

happened in mind to attempt it at this last moment. I shall alter hardly a word through the volume.

Yours affec:
J.R.
