

Kilmstock

9 April

TURN
OVER

My dear Watts

I expect Stiffen & Nolly
Brown here on Saturday
- the former to stay only over Sunday & believe
- the latter for about a week, & bringing some MS to work on.

If you can return to these diggings for which at same time, there is, as I said, lots of work & a hearty welcome for you.

I believe I must have brought you a little work which came for you by post.

PS I should have mentioned that I believe it would be sensible for you to travel with H. & Nelly,
as they proposed to come part of the way ^{in fact,} & in such case must have started today.

If you can come, would you object to let me hear some more of the novel of which I once heard something but not enough to get ^{any} idea of its plot & character.

From Kilmiscott

W. J. Watts Esq
2 Dames Inn
Strand

W C London

