

12 Jan. 1867

in exchange at time I as well
remained here,

My dear Gannett

If I had thought
you likely to say what was given for the little picture sent to you today, I could not have afforded
to let you have it,
and therefore you
may judge how unwilling I am to
say. I felt a satis-
-faction in attempting to remedy, by what I trust may not fail to prove a