

See must lead to further sales. As well to whom I spoke with subject & who saw the photos: at my mother's at once said the work
undertake that

Ruskin would wish
to have an original drawing. I will speak further to him when my own photos arrive.
It is melancholy to think that any aid & appreciation such as the drawings causes
fail to excite will come only at such a painful time. I have really no hope of recovery? I cannot understand how such an artist can have failed so long to obtain employment

from the dealers in Manchester. His babies are worthy of William Hunt & can never be unpacked - Does he work in colour? In such case I fancy employment in London as a copyist
to begin with might easily be obtained. But I suppose the health question now quite rega-
-tive this -