

I must be writing you
hardly

Thursday

My dear Shields

I will not look for you tomorrow, but shall be alone if you do drop in. Certainly your conduct when you came in last seemed to be about the worst I have seen
you in; but I was much struck with the fact that what you want chiefly
must be change &