

Sight of the print
before it is issued.
On the other hand,
if this is unknown
never mind.

I have convinced myself now that I am all right as to work, having made 2 coloured
chalk drawings,
one of my mother
& one of Christina
as well as a third drawing containing
their two heads together. This last

seems to look so well in the black that I shall probably not colour it. I am now beginning a
~~the~~ fourth drawing from Christina, which I shall say will get finished in colour
before I leave here.

After last writing
you, it struck me
whether the person
to whom the little Willow picture was sent by you on his enquiry might not have been Rowley
