My dear Shields

I cannot say that the letter of Richard's kinsman suggests high life. I send the P.P. as from you
to him. - 15/.

I have got some roses a trifle better to-day, but only cut flowers. My Impression is that if You could let me

have a tree of the right kind on Tuesday, I could still find one free to me it. But I will write again this evening as to the result of today's flowers.

Of course cut flowers
to keep all night
and be no use at all.
Ever your affec: DSR
