

17
Monday

My dear Hudson

I am very sorry to hear of so troublesome
an attack of ill health.
When I got your
note before, I fancied
the evil arose chiefly
from the wetness of your boots in damp
weather.

Shields told me you
had not turned up.
I will write again as soon as I know