N.W.

5 June 1892.

Dear Sir

I have no reluctance to comply with your courteously preferred request, & I enclose herewith two specimens of my brother's writing. One is, as you see, a paid cheque; the other is a part of the M.S.

(torn down the middle) of his sonnet named The Love-Moon.

Believe me, Dear Sir,

Very faithfully yours,

Wm. Gifford.
