Birchington - on - sea.

October 1.

Dear Mr. Shields

Here we are still at Birchington, and you know what we are thinking about. My Mother sends cordial salutations to Mrs. Shields and yourself, and if you will bestow a postcard on us it will tell us whether we may keep up our hopes of seeing the window before we return home. That once seen, our cause for staying here will be over; but we are prepared to wait till I know not when, in case of need.

Very truly yours
Christina G. Ropette.
