borrow them, for the sake of Williams's articles on Gabriel's works.

We are looking forward with all the more interest to Hastings (D.v.) next Tuesday, because of the bare possibility of our seeing your grand window before our return. Pray give my love to Mrs Shields: it is very dear of her to visit our beloved grave.

— But may this not reach you at once! for in that case I hope you are after all revelling in Britany.

Always yours truly
Christina G. Rossetti.
