

30 Torrington Square — W.C.

February 20. 1884.

Dear Mr. Shields

Benignly read my enclosure.
It stirs up my Mother's never-slumbering craving to behold a permanent result of your loving labours. Pray let her as soon as possible know that Mr. Aleock has inspected and approved, — thereby, we must recollect, only doing his duty toward his sacred Stewardship — your noble designs.
And "as soon as possible" may be soon now, may it not? I am answering Mr. Aleock's letter today,
