

Incidentally I expect that you have heard that Mrs. Simons had a fall at our home on April 22nd in which she broke her leg. She is getting around now pretty well but has not been able to cast aside at least one crutch.

Julia was here for two nights recently to see us and her granddaughter Mrs. Stough.

With best wishes for you and Mrs. Eakin, I remain,

Cordially your friend,