of which our land has to contend and O for one shall never rest again and my influence shall forever be at war with it-until it- is banished from our land How many think he was one of those men who could not-control his appetite, No not-that for he was only twenty one years of age who could control himself for he was one who had the firmness of a Wellington. what-was it- the ardor of youth or was it- for popularity- ah people of the present- day if one takes such an independent stand No he was one our Great- and natural Reformer. One of nature's noblemen one of the corner stone of every good Cause. As Bessie stood listening in wrapped attention to the speaker she said to herself This is my Ideal I could trust-him for a husband O could all he says him & his views
