

Page Two

activities in the Baptist Church. I think perhaps what we get out of a church depends very largely upon what we put into it. I do not mean gifts of money alone, but the thought and work and planning that we give to the church.

With love from all, I remain

Your brother