Dear Dad -

I intended to write you in answer to your letter received last Sunday, but your other letter and the deed came today so I will answer both at once.

In this matter, as in other matters of which I know nothing I am trusting entirely to your judgment and generosity.
I do not quite understand your purpose in the $1,000 note, as you are entitled under the law to make gifts up to $40,000 in any one year without payment of gift tax - ~~any~~ Any gifts in addition to $4,000 require the filing of a report, but
