Mr. Roger Williams, Postmaster
Lawrence, Kansas

Dear Roger:

I have arranged to give fruit cakes to a number of the postal employees who have been so kind in handling our mail, and nine of these cakes were delivered to the office today. I am therefore sending them up so that the men and their wives can count on the cakes in making their Christmas arrangements.

Please tell the boys that we appreciate very much the many nice things they do for us. Please see that each one of the following receive one of these cakes:

Charles E. Daniels
Fred O. Wilkerson
Arley H. Clark
Elbert E. Robinson
John C. Akers
John W. Canavan
Howard Moore
Clarence E. Corl
Lee Cox

Several others will receive cakes later.

Cordially yours,

W. C. Simons for the Journal-World
