

Page Two

Julia's health has not been good. She has been confined to her room nearly all of the time for the last ten months. I think there has been some improvement in the last ninety days, but not as rapid recovery as we should like to see

With best wishes, I remain

Sincerely

Your friend

W. C. Simons