

A.D. Weaver

Page Two

July 31, 1943

All this you know as well as I, but it is a rich and interesting part of the long life that you have lived.

I hope that you will thoroughly enjoy your stay at Gull Lake. I think it is a delightful spot for a vacation, and if at any time you feel a little weary of Rutgers, you can walk over to the Pine Beach Hotel in a few minutes' time.

With every good wish and appreciating our long years of friendship, I remain

Cordially yours,

W. C. Simons

WCS:df