

Jan. 5 - 1944

MRS. EUGENE DROUGHT - 1417 N. BLACKSTONE STREET - JACKSON, MICHIGAN

Dear Cousin:

Thank you very much for the Christmas present you sent me. I do appreciate it and shall use it wisely. One thing I shall have one of those triangle back rest pillows I long have wanted. I can't put a back rest up for myself but can adjust one of those pillows - they are light.

I am pleased that anything I said was worth commenting on in your paper. It's absolutely untrue that the unions don't tell their members how to vote. In the past three years I have encountered some queer things in hospitals; sick folk that are