

THE EMPORIA GAZETTE

W. A. WHITE, EDITOR AND OWNER

W. E. HUGHES, MANAGER

EMPORIA, KANSAS

September 11, 1929

My dear Simons:-

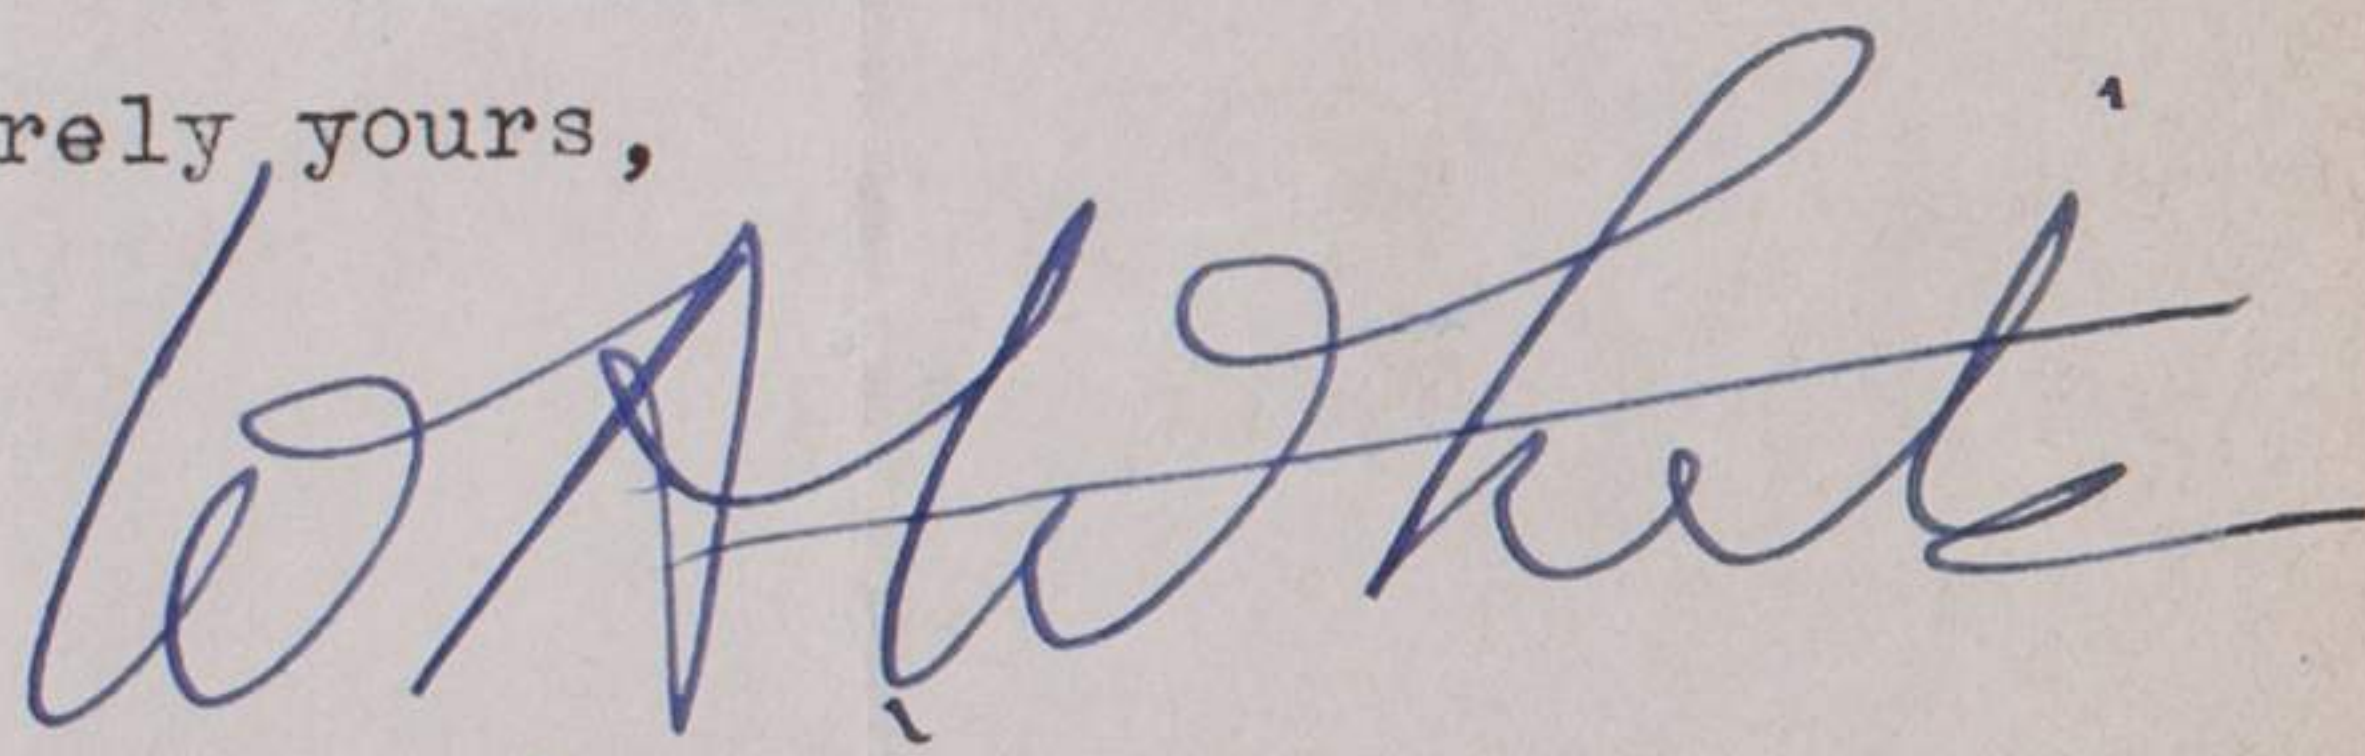

Here is a letter I have written to Milo Thompson. I think it represents your view and your experience. I wish you would write to me about it. They are making papers like ours pay for the added service to the big papers. What we should have is an editor there in Kansas City to condense some of these stories and get them out quick, and emphasize the Kansas stories. They are taking the mechanical way to do the thing, sending out a great potful of stuff instead of a small kettleful, well boiled.

I hope you are well and happy.

Sincerely yours,

Mr. W. C. Simons
