Dear Cousin: -

I think you must be back from your vacation at Full Lake. I trust both you and Mrs. Simons had a happy and restful time; probably the going and coming were neither traveling being what it is.

Our weather has been so peculiar the past year, never moderate, one extreme follows the other. Saturday and Sunday in the nineties and today sixty five and cloudy.

We have our winters coal ordered and paid for but because of labor shortage it hasn't been delivered. I hope we don't have to take it a month at a time - there
