

is satisfaction in having it all in the cellar. Changes are happening so fast in Europe that everytime I turn the radio on I gasp at what we are doing, and we were agghast at Hitler's Blitzkrieg four years ago!

Hillard is now overseas in the Pacific area. He phoned us good bye from California July 6. He didn't see his little son born July 12. We hear from him frequently.

I am hoping you were able to call on Billie. She seems to be failing this summer and I would like to get news first hand. She was looking forward to seeing you and your wife.

Every move Gov. Dewey makes is sound and right. I was greatly interested in his "internationalizing the Ruhr Valley"

That is really constructive - The desire to make war can be weeded out more quickly if the ability to make war is removed. It is said that when our country needs a truly great man it produces one. I like to think this will hold true in the election of Gov. Dewey to the Presidency.

Business must be given a chance if we are to pay this gigantic debt and live half way decently while doing it. If Roosevelt is reelected I took for more New Dealism than ever. It can't be we are that foolish.

I am happy to see thinking labor hitching itself to know political man.

Eugene has been exceptionally busy this summer - working every Saturday and sometimes Sunday. Even at that it is easier than last year as I am able to take care of myself now and help a