Dear Kathryne:

In going thru the papers that were left by my sister, Etoile, I have found things as far back as personal recommendations for my grandfather, Collins Goudy, when he attained his 21st birthday in 1826.

Among other things I find some things from your mother and a little letter from you written, I think, when you were thirteen years old. I am putting these things aside to send to you when I get thru.

I hope that you are gaining in health, that you hear good word from Willard, and that Eugene, Betty and baby are all fine.

Lovingly,

Your Cousin
