Dear Mary Jule:

I have been spending many hours trying to finish up going thru Stoile's papers. I find that I am having to pass on things preserved by my grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Collins Cowdy, my mother, and my sister. Here and there I find something that should interest you. I found the wire that was sent to Chicago announcing your birth and other cards and mementos. I also have put aside a number of stamps, but I think probably you have duplicates of most of this lot.

I don't know of anything much that would be of interest to you. I presume that you know that Jack Vincent has purchased the building he occupies and is trying to branch out as a jobber in certain lines.

Dolph Jr. is probably the youngest man on the high school football squad and has occasion at time to feel good and then the unfavorable reactions which are both to come to an inexperienced youngster in running up against older and more experienced players.

John had his twelfth birthday yesterday.

We expect Dorothen down within a few days.

Hope everything is well with you and your charming little daughter. Presume that the word from Charles continues to be good.

Lovingly,

Your Uncle
