Dear Cousin:-

Thank you for saving letters and papers for me from your sisters Etoile's papers. I shall be very glad to have them. I wish, too, I might have a copy of the recommendation given my great-grand father. I am interested in knowing who gave it.

I remember mother telling a an incident about herself: once when her grand father and grand mother were visiting her parents and mother was about four years. Mother was very fond of her grandmother and missing her one day
