SIXTEEN GRAMERCY PARK

Dear Mr. Simons,

This letter may strike you as cheeky, impractical or even superfluous, in the event you have already made other arrangements.

I have been trying to get a ticket of admission to the coming Republican National Convention, at Chicago. My own Congressman from Connecticut has already recommended to the National Committeeman that one be allotted to me. No final decision by the latter has yet been made.

I am endeavoring to get myself accredited as representative of a few newspapers from smaller towns, etc. A paper in the Catskill town where we summer has already so accredited me - and I expect similar
