Dear Grayce:

We are sending you herewith a number of pictures, some of which were undoubtedly yours in the first place and others that we felt you might like to have. We have duplicates of them for ourselves.

Gertie and I went thru three big dress boxes of pictures last night. We destroyed pictures that meant nothing to us nor to the family, and marked the names upon all of the pictures that we kept so that whoever gets them in the years to come will know who they are.

I don't know of anything special to tell you at this time.

Love to you both,
