Dear Owen:

Your grandparents think a whole lot about you, talk about you, and take pleasure in showing your picture to those visiting at our home. All of the news that reaches us in regard to you adds to our pride in you and our love for you.

I have always felt that you had capacity that would enable you to make good on anything that you undertook. I think every parent and probably every grandparent feels at times that the student is doing less than his best, but we feel sure that you have given everything you have to make good in the military service.

We love you, are proud of you, and if there is anything that we can do for you, we shall be very happy to do it.

We know you are busy, but we enjoy your letters very much.

Lovingly,

Your Grandad
