

Dear Collie:

Just got your letter and will add this memo to my note. Julia died in October and the 27th is Saturday and I had planned on being at Lawrence on that day. I miss her, as we had so much in common and everyday things come up which I would have called to her attention. The 25th is also always a reminder.

Love Bro. Chas.