

Page Two

I feel as if I know Betty and her children, and some day doubtless I shall have the pleasure of seeing them.

A recent letter from Lillian indicates that she is more confined to her room and bed than usual. The cold season there has not been good for her.

Please give my very best regards to Eugene and accept love for yourself.

Lovingly,

Your Cousin

Enc.