

this for him.

In his letter the other day he stated that the only relative he had left was a cousin living here in California.

You know his brother Bob, who was a painter and decorator in Lawrence for a good many years, passed away here in California about a year ago. Whitcomb's father ran the old Windsor Hotel in Lawrence, for a number of years.

kindest regards to you and yours,
Sincerely
J. C. Fine.
