

If you can do this for us, please rush it so we can begin to let the books out.

Mr Carpenter, the decorator of our house has donated his services in papering the room which is the steam heated parlor of the hotel - and the Anderson Lumber Yard has offered lumber for tables book shelves etc - Some carpenters who have never been known to give a cent are doing the work as their donation Billy is doing the electrical work

I do wish you and Bertie could get away and come up to see what we have been doing this summer -

We received the check and thank you - We thought it all very good for Worthea and were pleased when she told us she intended to come every summer. She was a good girl and has an excellent disposition and if she had any little reproach noses
