

January 30, 1945
2

Dear Aunt & Uncle -

Your most welcome gift just arrived and we really thank you for it. We thought that just for the moment we would have it for that rainy day, but if things turn out as well here as we think they are and there isn't a quick farewell trip to the coast in a couple of months, I'll get one of those good looking reversible raincoats with