

Mrs. Walter Gregg

Page Two

January 5, 1945

Now having written this much, the best thing is to have the thing off your mind as much as possible and to try to make the remaining years as happy for your husband, your daughter, and yourself, as it is possible to do.

With love and best wishes for the days to come, I remain

Lovingly,

Your Cousin

WCS:df