

Lt. O. W. Maloney

Page Two

January 3, 1945

for 25 years, was my direct ancestor, nine generations removed. In other words, I am the tenth generation, counting him as the first.

The records show that we had some twenty ancestors who served in the Colonial Wars, so that thru the years, your ancestors have had a real part, first in gaining and establishing liberty, and afterwards in preserving it.

With love and best wishes, I remain

Your Grandfather.