Dear Mr. Simons -

I received a letter from Mother in which she had inclosed a clipping out of the Journal World telling about Mrs. Simons death. This made me quit sad. I well know that you have lost a faithful companion and your children have lost a good Mother. She always seemed to be deeply concerned about the welfare of her family and nothing made her happier than to have her dear ones in her home. But now God has seen fit to take her away from the troubles and trials of this life, she can not come back to this world, but you can all go to her someday. So may you all look to The Heavenly Father for comfort in your sorrow. I know you will be quite lonesome without her but you can also be thankful that you were permitted to live happily together these many years. For there
