I guess when I wrote to you before, we were still with Marvin's folks. He moved in our house the ~~18~~ 16th of March. He live 1 mile from Marvin's folks now. The farm we live on has 2 houses. I he farm we live in one and the landowner lives in one & we in the other. They live in the house that they told Marvin we could live in when he rented the farm. He have 5 rooms and a nice glassed-in back porch and a double garage which is built on the house. He have a gas hot plate on the back porch so I have my washing machine out there and do my washing there also I have a cabinet & table on the porch so
